In September of '78 McAuley received a deer visitor. Due to unfortunate circumstances our friend was frightened away by the new bright, bold colors of the school. Unlike the students, who thought the change of colors brought a new outlook to McAuley, the deer visitor felt he was blinded by the light.

TOMORROW TODAY

Will I Remember today tomorrow?
Will I think Of tomorrow today?
Each movement we make,
Each sentence we take.
For Granted.

The things are important,
We're sure to Remember,
It's the little things,
That are forgotten and blown away with the wind.

Yesterday comes as a misty picture,
Painted in my mind.

The picture is painted no clearer,
Then the days so far behind.

Will I Remember today tomorrow?
Will I think tomorrow today?
The brushes and paint are waiting,
The pictures are here to stay. Joannie Stribbs

We began as Freshman on our first day of school, lost and walking into wrong rooms. Our Big Sisters helped us adjust to this routine, for at the most we were only fifteen.

As Sophomores we did crazy things at the Halloween party and met new friends, like our Sophomore pal. We began to grow up when we first got our temps., and were allowed to go to our first Date Dance.

When we were Juniors our class became unified when we were given our sweaters and rings. We became upperclassmen with just two years to go, living it up at the Christmas Dance and Prom.

Our Senior year was spent planning our futures, and building new ones in our Little Sisters. Our years at McAuley ended with graduation, out into the world with little hesitation.

When we look back at these times in the future years we'll remember the faces and names of those friends that made those years such pleasant ones.

 You make schooltime lots of fun.
 Little Sister I'm awfully fond of you.
 Everyday when I make my way to McAuley,
 I find a little Freshman who's cute and green and funny.
 Little, Little Sister.
 Little Sister, you're so fine
 And I'm lucky that you're mine.
 Little Sister I'm awfully fond of Little Sister I'd like a whole school of
 Little Sister I'm awfully fond of you!"

The main goal of each girl involved in McAuley's sports is to give her all, and to help each team member do likewise. Whether they are keeping the ball bouncing in basketball, flipping over gymnastics, hitting grandslams, running the mile, spiking a volleyball, or swinging a backhand, the teams at McAuley show that teamwork as well as skill help them to excel in all they do.

The halls quieted down for two weeks while the seniors escaped to Maria Stein for a few days of rest and reflection. The theme of the retreat was Affirmation. There were discussions, skits, a mass, and a prayer service. All the activities were centered on getting to know others and on affirming yourself and those around you. This song captured the spirit of the retreat: "I cried a tear you wiped it dry. I was confused, you cleared my mind. I sold my soul, you bought it back for me. Somehow you needed me. You gave me strength to stand alone again. To face the world out on my own again. You put me high, upon a pedestal so high that I could almost see eternity. You needed me, you needed me. And I can't believe it's you, I can't believe it's true. I needed you and you were there and I'll never leave, why should I leave I'd be a fool cause I've finally found someone who really cares."

Amid the flashing lights and disco beat Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors tried out the latest disco steps to the sounds of the "Terrific Traveling Light and Sound Show." McAuley's top ten was aired and the song "Three Times a Lady" by the Commodores was number one. All present enjoyed their "Night on Disco Mountain."

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council of 1978-79, along with the help of Sister Mary Brenda made possible the many activities of this school year. Sister Brenda and the Student Council members came in and took over the responsibilities of organizing the Date Dance, Paper Drive, McDonald sale, along with many other activities. They brought a change of pace in when Student Council Week "came alive." The week was filled with everything from Silly Sock Day to recognizing the teachers on Teacher Appreciation Day. And, of course, no one will forget the singing announcements informing us that: "You, you're the one!"

Here's to you, Dad.
A glass of champagne
And a kiss on the cheek
For the times you
Helped me with geometry;
The times you told me
To cheer up
Even though that special guy
Had let me down;
And especially for the times
You say to me,
"You'll always be my little girl."
Here's to you, Dad.

On Halloween, McAuley's sophomore class held their annual Halloween party. Prizes were awarded for the best homeroom idea and for the best costumes. Homeroom 16 won the best homeroom idea award for their version of a Toy Box. The best costume award was given to Diane Dirr, Patty Houser, and Gina Knecht for a box of crayons. Other costumes and homeroom ideas included traditional halloween costumes: Space creatures, a Disco, and Western World.

"SCREWTAPE" haunted the halls of McAuley during the fall of '79. An eerie atmosphere pervaded the school and while no souls were lost the devilish fiend absconded with the photographs for this page. A warning for all to beware! Terri Busch and Carrie Mees starred in the production.

Baul Miller '80''

29 + 1 in '79

It's that time of year again when all good McAuley students and faculty run about selling raffle tickets. After all the planning, confusion and scheming, this is how the classes stacked up: The red hot seniors' fever kept rising, until their temperature reached the boiling point and declared them as the winning class in this year's raffle. The wild and crazy class of '80 wasn't far behind in their yellow submarine but even with Glascock's Gestopoes being the top selling home-room, they couldn't get up enough steam to surface. The sophomores' game plan was unsure at first but they finally got it all together and socked it to 'em to bring in 99.5% of their goal. The freshman thought that a little bit of luck would bring them success in the raffle but they soon found out that skill was what really helped them to succeed. Combined, the school did better than expected, bringing in over 35,000 dollars.

29 + 1 in '79 was a great success!

REFLECTION

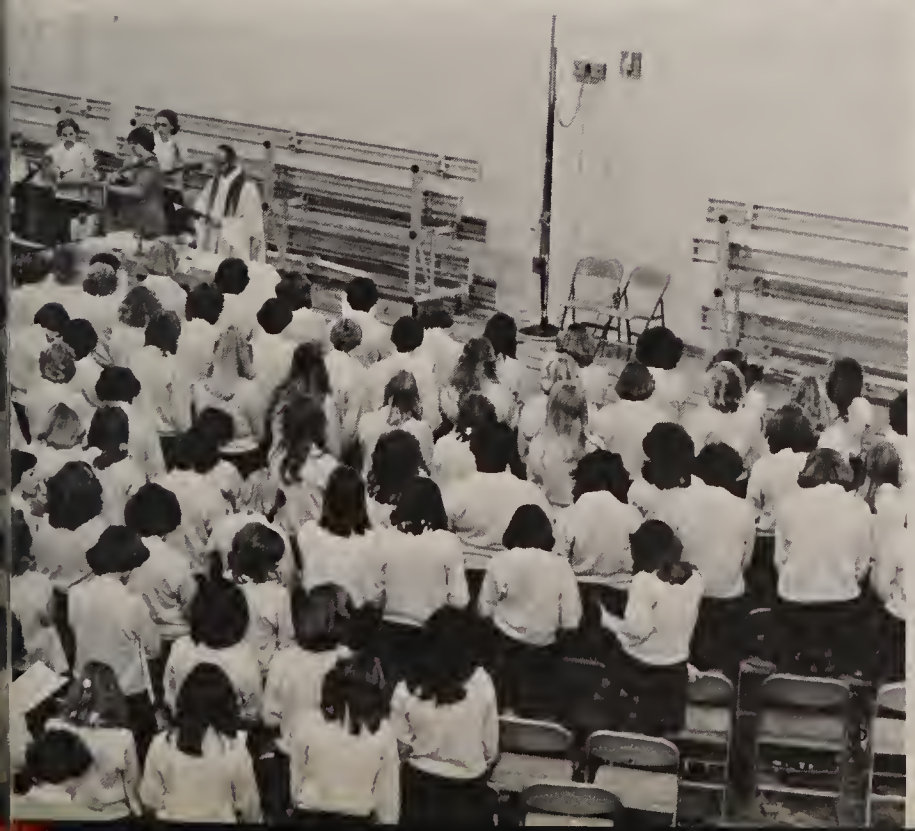

Reflection ... Prayer ... Reconciliation ... Penance ...

Discussion ... Renewal ...

McAuley Juniors, Sophomores, and Freshman took time out from a regular school day to become aware of themselves and others at the annual Awareness Day.

Mrs. Carmela Christen, the speaker of the day, graciously gave of her time and spoke to the three classes. Everyone agreed her topics were both interesting and informative.

Other events included a mass, penance service, and group discussions. All who participated found the day both beneficial and worthwhile.

CHRISTMAS AT MCAULEY

Christmas Concert (Patterns of Christmas) Dec. 19.

The "Patterns of Christmas" at McAuley were changed as McAuley and LaSalle's music departments combined their talents at the annual Christmas Concert. In keeping with the spirit of Christmas, the two schools worked together to make this year's program both enjoyable and unique.

Christmas Skit

Dolls that dance, umbrellas that sing, talking clocks and so many other things were brought right here from all over the world to the "Toy Scout Jamboree". The toy scout showed off all their finds to the scrutinizing eyes of Santa Claus. But when the best toy was announced it was not a toy at all. The gift of giving as we all know, is the greatest gift of all.

Christmas Mass

The McAuley community celebrated the Christmas Mass in an international way. Singing Silent Night in various languages was one way in which this was accomplished.

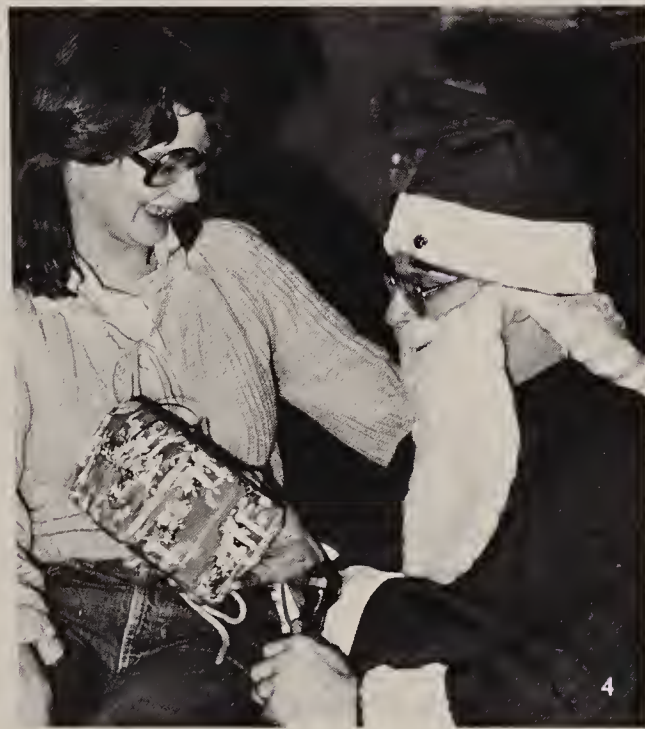

Christmas Parties

Everyone likes parties and the Christmas holidays gave McAuley students and clubs a good excuse to throw party after party. The Latin and Spanish Clubs both celebrate Christmas in their respective country's style here at school; While the French Club went carolling and held celebration complete with French pastries afterward. On December 20 the Seniors played Santa to their little sisters at the Big-Little Sister Christmas party where all recreated "Twas The Night Before Christmas".

CHRISTMAS DANCE DECEMBER: 26

What is an Old Fashioned Christmas?

To some, it's sitting by the fire listening to Christmas stories, to other it's sleigh rides and carols. Some think of decorated trees, chestnuts, sugar plums, Santa Claus and stocking, But to McAuley juniors and seniors, "An Old Fashioned Christmas" means the Christmas Dance

The Student Prayer

Now I sit me down to study.
 I pray the Lord I won't go nutty.
 And if I fail to learn this junk
 I pray the Lord that I won't flunk.
 And when I die don't pity me at all.
 Just lay my bones in the study hall.
 And pile my books upon my chest.
 And tell my teacher I've done my best.
 Now I lay me down to rest
 To pray I'll pass tomorrows test
 And if I should die before I wake,
 That's one less test I'll have to take.

ACADEMICS

Academics are ...

the novels I read in English class,
the proofs I'm trying to learn in Geometry,
the verb tenses I'm beginning to master in Spanish,
the dates I memorize in History,
and the Studyhalls ...

But in the end, when I get A's on my report card, all the headaches, and seemingly endless hours of homework are worth it.

Variety Show — Feb. 10-11
"Reel to Real"

The class of 80' began planning for the annual Variety Show in November. The theme chosen was "Reel to Real." First came the task of picking the heads of staff. Next, came the auditions and casting. After the final cast was chosen, music needed to be found, and acts needed polishing. Finally, Opening Night! McAuley's talent played to a sellout crowd. When it was all over — only memories, congratulations, memories, and clean up lingered.

A BREAK IN THE ACTION

Assemblies, an essential part of McAuley's schedule, cover a wide variety of topics. Whether McAuleyans come together for a Mass, pep rally, or the raffle, their school spirit is always evident. Assemblies, such as the piano concert given by Richard Collins, and the Suicide, Alcholism and Drug Abuse discussion sponsored by Student Council provided an imformative and enjoyable break from the daily routine.

INTERNATIONAL WEEK

International Week was introduced to McAuley the week of March 12-16. Each of the language clubs worked together on various activities throughout the week. Tacos and pastries were sold in the cafeteria to the tunes of international music, and foreign exchange students talked to the language classes. The highlight of the week was T-shirt day when the language students wore T-shirts with an international flavor.

When "Spring Fever" hits McAuley, the signs are visible. Girls become rowdy in anticipation of the Little-Big sister picnic, softball, the spring musical, prom, track, graduation and the Junior Ring ceremony. Thoughts also turn to summer and the end of the school year when vacation plans are fulfilled and endless days are spent soaking up the sun.

Freshman Dad-Daughter Dance

Freshman Dad-Daughter Dance
Pink ribbons and lace are now
Shiny satin and glitter.
Dress ups and toys are now make up and boys.
Stories, and bedtime at 8:00, are now parties and things like "Don't be home late!"
But some things never change with age
I am still and always will be,
"Daddy's Little Girl."

On March 23, "Daddy's Little Girls" hosted their first Dad-Daughter Dance. Kathy Backus and escort were crowned king and queen.

SPRING PLAY

In this day of rising costs and inflation who would believe that anything could be "Cheaper by the Dozen." But on March 24, 25, and 26 McAuley's Genesians proved to the world that families are definitely "Cheaper by the Dozen". The cast of the production included: Sandy Davis, Ed Wilkerson, Anne Ross, Pam Levin, Aimee Bosch, Bill Gaiser, David Creed, Terri Darragh, Alex Saba, Steve Cappel, Mary Beth Donnelly, Mike Doll, Artie Evans, Annie Fitzpatrick, Bob Schehr, Mark Schmidt, Joe Kramer, Carrie Mees, Cindy Mercer, Jenni Betsch, Mike Cappel, Mary Dahlstrom, Karen Dinkelacker, Cristy Fulks, Kathy Kling, Jane Kist, Janice Koehlke, Cheryl Saho, Cheryl Reichel, Ralph Seta, Laura Thiemann, Melissa Nickert, Mary Payne

HARBOR LIGHTS: April 21, 1979

On April 21, the Harbor Lights softly glowed as couples glided across the dance floor to the music provided by Coldspring Harbor. The evening climaxed with the crowning of this year's Prom Queen, Annie Fitzpatrick.

Harbor Lights soft and low
Misty nights, eyes that glow
Ships at dock, some at sea
His gentle arms embracing me
A night to remember a night of bliss
The remembrance of his gentle Kiss
A night at harbor with ships at sea
A memory shared by him and me

BIG SISTER — LITTLE SISTER PICNIC

Seniors and Freshmen go together like peanut butter and jelly; like salt and pepper; like P. & G. So . . . on May 2, 1979, the seniors and the freshmen got together for the last time. The freshmen presented a skit: "A Trip Down Memory Lane" for the seniors and then treated them to a picnic lunch out on the back grounds.

McAuley's Fine Arts Department, with the help of the St. Francis Seminary Glee Club, welcomed Spring on May 8 with a production entitled, "Sunshine in my Soul". The Senior Chorus, Glee Club, Orchestra, and Vocal Ensemble brightened up the auditorium with such selections as "Tomorrow", "Edelweiss", a disco version of Beethoven's Fifth Symphony, and "All In the Golden Afternoon". The artistic talent of McAuley's students shone brightly through their work which was displayed in the student lounge.

McAuley students gathered on May 2, 1979 for their final liturgy. They gave thanks for a fruitful year and prayed for a good summer. Mass was celebrated by Father Tom Feldhaus for the seniors and freshmen. The juniors and sophomores attended a mass celebrated by Father Mike Flaherty. Flowers honoring Mary were placed at her statue during the offertory procession.

 everyone's eyes are glistening with tears not ready to glide
 down sun-burned cheeks ...
 but we're trying not to cry.
 trying to remind ourselves that all of the talk of beginnings is not empty ...
 this really is a beginning,
 our beginning.
 but the echoes of the past
 call to us
 beg us to wrap ourselves with a warm soft blanket ...
 of memories.
 for that's what these hallways
 will have to be now ...
 memories. JULIE KEMBLE '79

Together this heart and mind will find answers to the thousand unanswered questions that,
 at one moment
 leads me to tears,
 yet at the next
 fills my heart with hope. CHERYL MOUCH '79

Blouses starched innocent white
Buttons in full use
Uniforms pleated perfect to the knee
Socks stretched full length staying
Freshman enter McAuley.

Blouses limp, graffiti grey
Uniforms minus yellow and shrinking
Socks rolled or falling
Seniors leave forever.

I have a friend who's been with me for all the special years
 When we would share our secrets and childhood tears;
 But now we talk more closely about the growth we've known
 And all the many ways in which our friendship's shown.

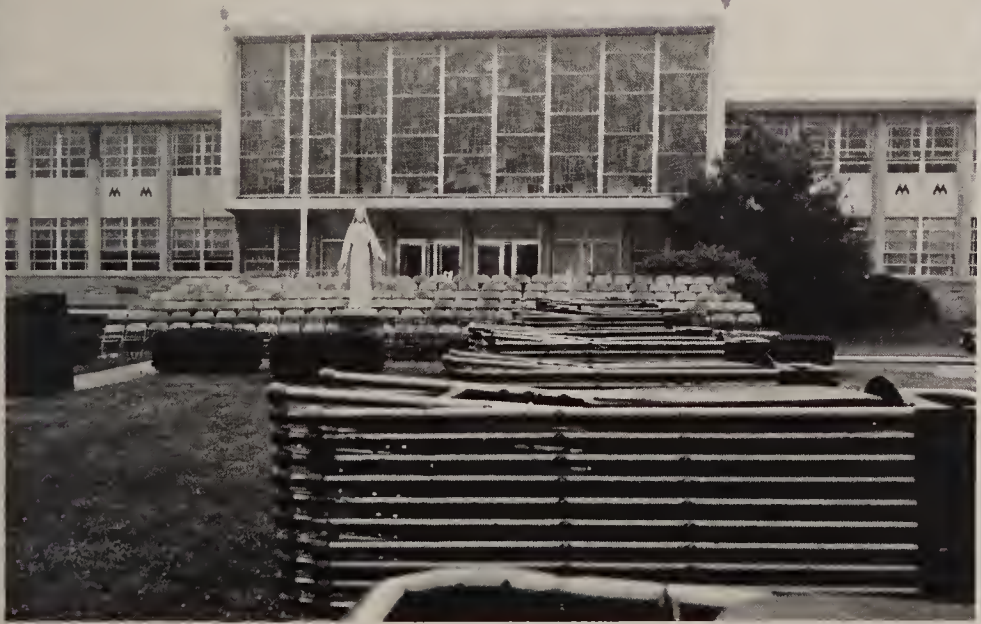

And yet another friend I have I've known for just a while, And still we've shared the lonely tears, the private smiles;
 With her I've learned that time cannot affect the bond of trust
 That helps us face the pain and sadness when we must,

How my friends have touched me, brought me from my fears
 Of always being the strong one who has to hide the tears.
 Yet now I'm even stronger, my treasure unlike gold.
 Our times together have reached me, and my friend is half my soul.

How my friends have touched me, brought me from my fears of always being the strong one who has to hide the tears.
 Yet now I'm even stronger, my treasurer unlike gold.
 Our times together have reached me, my friend is half my soul.

Now my friends have touched me, brought me from my fears
 Of always being the strong one who has to hide the tears.
 Yet now I'm even stronger, my treasurer unlike gold.
 Our times together have reached me, my friend is half my soul.

JUNIOR RING CEREMONY

On June 4th the class of '80 officially became seniors as they received their rings. A symbol, a treasure, that lasts forever, their rings will serve as a sign of unity in their senior year and continue to remind them of McAuley after graduation.

You were always there:

Greeting us the first week of school ...
In the classroom telling adventures ...
Getting into the spirit of faculty
Volleyball games ... putting on that junior Sweater during the raffle ...

You were always there:

In celebrating ring ceremony with us ...
At graduation bidding adieu ... on Awareness day coordinating activities ...
Hearing confessions in the chapel ...

You were always there:

Saying thank you for what we gave ...
Talking about your family ... sailing
With your buddies ... walking down the Hallway in those hush puppies and white Socks ...

You were always there:

As a friend to the faculty ... honoring
Mary during may mass ... playing golf
With your pals ... Listening to those who Needed someone to talk to ...

You were always there:

Smiling under that bushy mustache ...
Admiring the beauty of nature ... giving
Mass before thanksgiving ... helping us
On our way ...

You were always there:

Peering through those thick black glasses
...
Praying for our special needs ... wearing a woolly Sweater when temperatures lowered
...
saying a Final mass the last week of school
...

Yet You will be always there in the hearts of us all.

SISTER MARY AMADEUS, RSM — “If I were a color, I would like to be red. It is bright, vivacious, strong and a rich color. It speaks of energy, spirit, love, dedication. Better than all it is the color that is symbolic of the Holy Spirit — service of love and inspiration.”

SISTER MARY PERPETUA, RSM — “I would want to be green. Green is a symbol of life and of hope. Man fully alive is a person living in God’s graced presence; it is God’s life that he is living that makes him fully alive. I would want to be this way — green or any other color. The person fully alive in Christ is a giver of life to others, bringing to life in the other the potential God has given him. He communicates this joy to others.”

SISTER MARY BRENDA, RSM — “Bright yellow because it is a color that is alive and cheery.”

1. MISS LOUANNE BACHNER; Religion I — “If I were to be any color at all, I would choose red — because if I were bright red no one would be able to tell if I blushed.” 2. MRS. PAT BARTLEY; French II — “Blue would I be because that’s me — cool, calm, collected, and serene. It’s not that I’m a lad — it’s simply because blue makes me glad.” 3. MRS. DEBBIE BIRCK; English II, Drama I, II, III, and IV — “I would be a pale lavender because it is the color of one of my favorite roses — the Lady X. The rose reminds me of pale, sad, quiet women like the character Ophelia in the Elizabethan Age. I would love to have been born then to see all the things I’ve read about.” 4. SISTER CLARA BLANKMEYER; American History, Ethnic Relations, and Media Specialist — “I would be blue because . . . blue is a synonym for many feelings — cool, tranquil, refreshing and relaxing. The many shades of this color make up these feelings. Think of the things around us that take on this color — the sky, the water, etc. To me, these are part of a ‘thoughtful’ atmosphere which I try to enjoy as much as possible.” 5. MRS. TERRIE BLOSSER; English II, Latin II and Shakespeare — “I would be royal blue because the color symbolizes many desirable elements to me: depth, richness (not necessarily materialistic), sophistication, and stateliness.” 6. MR. CHUCK BUHRMAN; Biology II and Guidance Counselor — “I would be blue because I associate it with the sky on a clear summer day and water. It’s carefree, peaceful, and happy.” 7. MR. BOB CASTELLI; Guidance Counselor — “I would be blue because it seems so calm, peaceful and serene.” 8. MRS. BARB DREYER; Algebra I, and Algebra II — Trigonometry — “I would be yellow because it is such a warm optimistic, and joyful color.”

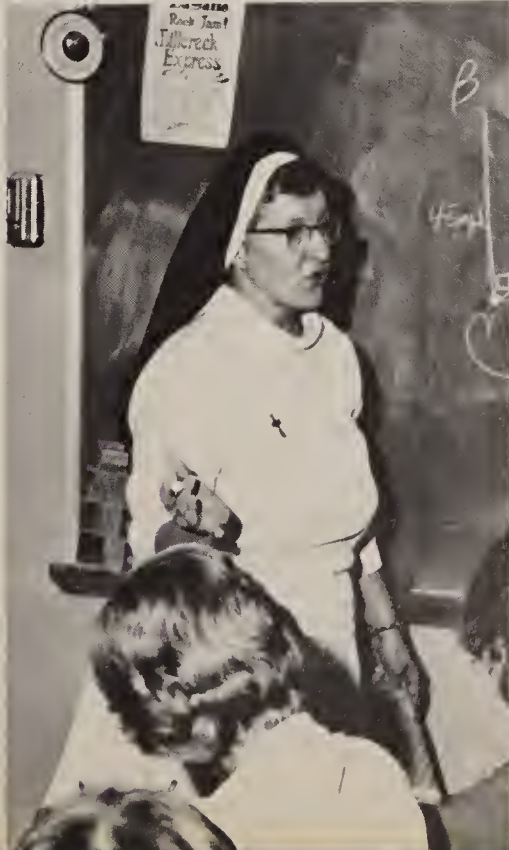

MRS. ELIZABETH DYSART; Geometry and Algebra I — "I would be white because white by definition is the collection of all colors." 2. SISTER CHERYL ERB; Religion I, American History and Cultural Anthropology — "I would be red — because it is warm, vibrant, and has vigor." 3. MISS MARILYN ENIGK; Spanish II and Religion IV — "I would be orange because it is a dynamic color and I think of myself as a lively and enthusiastic person." 4. MISS CECILIA FELIX; Glee Club and Senior Chorus — "I would be a very pale blue not overpowering or dominant but quiet, subtle and reserved." 5. FATHER MIKE FLAUHERTY; Religion III — "I would be yellow because it is bright." 6. MRS. MARY LACHMANN; Shorthand, General Typing, and Basic Accounting — "I would be gold because it is bright and the color seems to symbolize value." 7. MR. JERRY GLASCOCK; English III — "I would be red because it is bright." 8. MISS DIANE GREEN; Home Economics I, Clothing Construction, and Sociology of Family Life — "I would be yellow because it's the color of sunshine which brings warmth and light to brighten up a dull day, it's the color of daisies and buttercups growing carefree in the woods dandelions which announce that spring is here and little kids clutching them as a treasure for their mother."

1. MR. FRED HAAS: Religion II and Religion IV — "I would be purple because I like purple (regal, royal) panthers." 2. MISS MARY JANE HUBER: English I — "Surely it would be great fun to be plaid. Why is that so? Plaid suggests a many-faceted personality. However, no orchid and no orange may be in my plaid for those are two horrid colors." 3. MISS VIRGINIA HUBER: World Culture — "I would be red because it is vibrant, electric and brilliant! In Japan red represents life." 4. MISS CYNTHIA HUFF: Biology I and Health — "I would be a rust-brown because it is a very mellow color but it is still bright." 5. MRS. CLAIRE HUGHES: Algebra II and Geometry — "I would be green because my favorite seasons are spring and summer when the trees and plants are growing." 6. MISS KRISTA JANSEN: Religion II, Art I and General Drawing — "I would be white because by definition, white is the collection of all colors." 7. MRS. DIANE JONES: Algebra I and Geometry — "If I could be a color, I would be the color green — for green reminds me of springtime and it brings to mind new life and new beginnings." 8. MRS. JOAN JOSTWORTH: Religion III and World Culture — "I would be yellow because it is bright and cheerful and I would enjoy being bright and cheerful all the time."

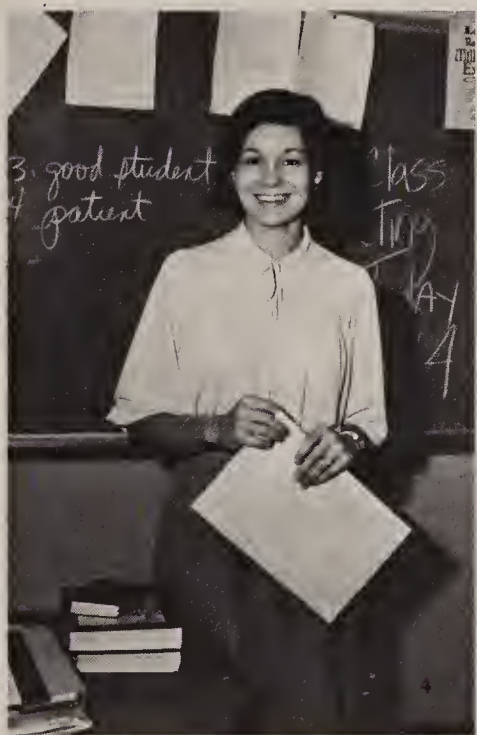

MR. JERRY JUNKER; Problems of Democracy and American History — "I would like to be blue. Blue has always been my favorite color. Blue to me represents peace and tranquility. And we need relaxation and restfulness in the age of rapid pace and change." 2. SISTER MARY MICHAEELEN; School Librarian — "I would be green because this is the universal color of nature. I love and admire flowers and plants. God created this beautiful land covered with the color of hope and eternal life, green. Personally, I like the color green because it is cool, comforting and because I'm Irish." 3. MRS. JANE KRAMIG; Art II, III, and IV — "I would be rust — because it's the color of the fall leaves, it's warm, but bright and still kind of mellow" 4. MISS SARAH LINN; English I — "I would like to be dark red because it is comfortable and cozy yet bold and independent." 5. MISS NANCY MCJOYNT; Typing I, Business Dynamics, and Introduction to Business — "I would like to be yellow so I could brighten up the darkest moments." 6. SISTER MARY JOHANNA NIKLAS; Algebra I, Math IV, and Physics — "I would be red because it is traditionally the color of love — the love of God for me and the Love of God for all mankind, communicated through me to those lives I touch." 7. MRS. MARY ELLEN OHR; Biology I, Ecology, and Animal Behavior — "I would be yellow because it is a warm color." 8. MRS. MARY KAY PILLER; Latin II — "I would be orange because it reminds me of fall — my favorite time of year."

1. MISS KATHY POHL; American History, Problems of Democracy — “Yellow, It’s a bright and cheery color, although it can be overpowering and domineering, it makes one feel confident, secure and happy.” 2. MRS. SUE RECHENBERG; Typing II, General Typing, Office practice — “Yellow because it’s a happy bright color.” 3. MR. EUGENE RICE; Biology I — “Persimmon, possums like them.” 4. MISS CONNIE ROBINSON; English IV, Yearbook, Creative Writing — “Ecu, it’s warm and inviting but also neutral. Other colors can visit but Ecu can also stand alone.” 5. SISTER MARY CLARITA ROETTKER; Religion II — “I would be blue because this has been recognized in the past as being Our Lady’s color and I have great devotion to Mary.” 6. MRS. CAROL SANTEN; Home Economics, Interior Decorating, Money Management — “White, because it is the combination of all colors.” 7. SISTER GRETA SCHMIDLIN; Shorthand I, Shorthand II, Transcription Office Practice — “Yellow, because it is warm and cheerful.” 8. *MR. 1. MISS VICKI STEIGELMAN — Chemistry, Biology II and Health — “I would be yellow because it’s a warm, bright color and would harmonize well with the nasturium walls and the student spirit in my homeroom.” 2. MISS PAM VISSING — English II, III, and IV — “If I were a color, I would be yellow because it is such a vibrant, alive color. Yellow is cheery, bright, and spunky and rich and . . .” 3. SISTER EILEEN MARIE WALLACE — Advanced Accounting, Basic Accounting, and Business Math — “I would be blue because it’s the color of the sky on a clear day. But the green of the spring and russet of fall, without question my friend are the grandest of all.” MRS. MURPHY — “I would be blue because it’s nice and cool.” *MRS. Many subjects covered on McAuley books

by Linda Ott

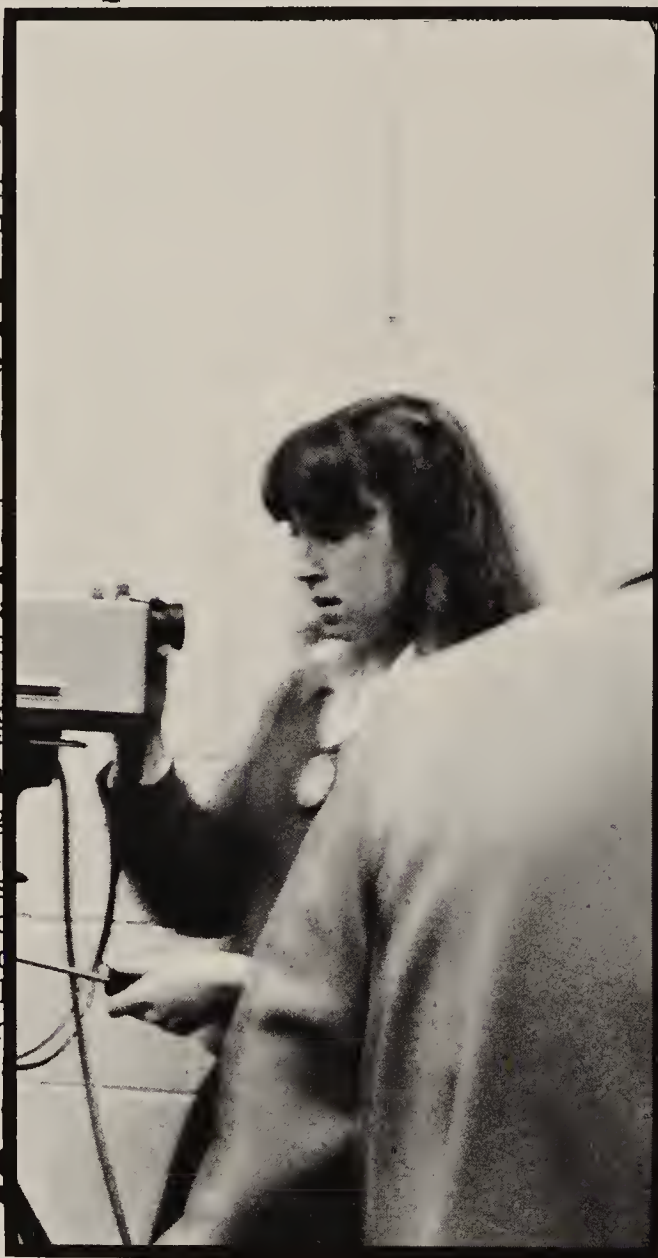

McAuley High School has a rule that all books must be covered or one point may be deducted from the students' record. At the beginning of the school year, students express their annoyance at this rule, but by the second quarter, feel fortunate to have a place to express themselves and their deepest thoughts or emotions. Book covers are easily obtained in the bookstore, McAlpins', or from an old paper bag. Brown paper bags give students plenty of room to be creative. McAlpins' book covers, which are brilliantly decorated with Q102 and bright colors, add class to any subject; plus you're free.

When a student strolls down the hall to class or runs to lunch, many messages are viewed on book covers. There are the usual gossip covers such as "Lisa loves Tim," and "Steve and ..."

Explorers

by Natalie Kuethe

Explorers, a co-ed branch of the Boy Scouts of America (BSA), is an organization well known to many McAuley students. This program was founded in 1812 by Paul Siple and was known as Senior Scouts. In 1935 the official name of Explorers was given to the group. At this time, Explorers was for males only, but in 1969, William H. Spurgeon III pushed it to become co-ed.

The Explorers program began that Boy Scouts could continue scouting after they reached the highest status of scouting, the Eagle Scout. The difference between the two programs is that Scouting deals with camping and outdoor life while exploring is career oriented.

fall and spring conference where they give awards and elect officers. In individual posts, the advisors hold a seminar for new officers and all advisors are given a training program where they learn how to work with youth.

Another post, located in Evandale, is Post 342. Explorers of this group learn the techniques of fire fighting and first aid. Besides learning themselves, members also give talks and demonstrations with fire fighters to groups of school students who request it. This post also conducts a first aid competition with a floating trophy, which is the only competition of its kind held in the nation.
